

United bring strong squad

FOURTH Division Cambridge United will be bringing down their full first team squad for Thursday's friendly against Wycombe Wanderers at Loakes Park.

Apart from 18 year old goalkeeper Graham Smith, United should field their first team which will line up from: G. Smith, Walker, Howe, Seary, Lyon, Eades, P. Smith, Billey, Shinton, Horsfall, Batson, Tulley, O'Donnell, Allen, Spriggs.

Cambridge fielded a strong side for their friendly at Southern League Kettering on Saturday when they drew 4-4. They were four goals down after a three goals in three minutes burst from the home side but hit back well to share the honours. United beat Hitchin in the F.A. Cup last season after drawing 0-0 at Top Field.

Wanderers will be without Maskell, Horseman, Holifield and Reardon but Paul Birdseye should be back. Dave Bullock is likely to play in goal.

This is Wycombe's first home friendly and will give supporters the chance to see their new players and the prospects for the coming season.

Meanwhile, tonight (Tuesday) MARLOW stage a friendly with another local club BURNHAM, who have recently made some useful signings. Marlow played their first game on Saturday when they beat Clapton 2-0 in the Marlow Invitation Cup.

Terry Staines and Ray Palmer were the goalscorers in a useful Marlow performance which manager Peter Rogers described as "very promising". Goalkeeper Winter and centre half Peter Stone return to tonight's team while Staines misses the match with a back strain sustained on Saturday.

New signing Richard Wilkes, who played for Slough last term, is in the Burnham squad to visit Marlow. Manager Malcolm Highton has named Seary, Jones, Bryant, Hall, Hunt, Claydon, Banks, Gould, Foulkes, Wesson, Harris, Wilkes, Marcham, Davies, and Jarrett for the game.
